

Time Travel Days at the Old Town Hall
32 Derby Square, Salem, MA 01970
May 2nd and 3rd, 2009
8AM-6PM

The Gordon College Institute for Public History announces a collaborative festival for residents and visitors providing opportunities to interact with Salem's rich and diverse history. Time Travel Days is looking for musicians, performers, vendors, and presenters to provide programming for students, history buffs and the community at large. Programming may be from any time period, but must be related to Salem.

Potential programming participants are invited to submit a response to the call for proposals below. Programmers whose proposals are selected may be required to submit an additional application.

Programmers will not be paid, but items such as recordings, books, lectures on tape, etc may be sold.
